

June 12, 1941

MRS. ELIZ. WAGENER RITES ON THURSDAY

All that was mortal of Mrs. Elizabeth Wagener, pioneer Groton community woman, was laid to rest beside her husband, the late Frank A. Wagener, in Groton union cemetery last Thursday afternoon, following a simple but beautiful service in the Methodist church with the Rev. L. C. Benson officiating both in the church service and at the grave.

A large number of friends and neighbors were on hand to pay a last tribute to their departed friend, who many of them had known for fifty years. Attending the rites from out-of-town were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Wagener and son, Hobart, of Sioux Falls; June Wagener, Brookings; Mrs. Anna Semrich, Watertown, Wis.; Messrs. and Mmes. J. C. Quincer and Clarence Quincer and son, and Miss Claribell Quincer of Wadena, Minn.; Messrs. and Mmes. Fred and William Marquardt, Mrs. Bertha Marquardt and Miss Alice Marquardt of Watertown, S. D.; Miss Edna Olson, Minneapolis; Mr. and Mrs. John Hopfner and Gleva Hopfner, Randolph; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Preston, Marshall, Minn.; Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Davis, Hartford Beach, S. D.; Mines. L. Turriff, Mae Frommel and B. E. Archer and Mr. Charles Draeger of Aberdeen.